

17. November 2022

Education and culture

Special film "Everybody talks about the weather"

Self-discovery drama at the Kinodrom // Special film on November 22 // Admission 6 euros // Tickets online or at the box office

This drama of self-discovery is about a philosophy lecturer from Berlin who travels to the East German province for her mother's birthday. On the one hand, she experiences there exactly what she fled from, on the other hand, she feels a certain sense of home and connection. The film will be shown as part of the series "Der besondere Film" on Nov. 22 at Kinodrom Bocholt. Tickets are available at www.kinodrom.de or at the box office

Content

The self-discovery drama "Alle reden übers Wetter" is about 39-year-old Clara, who lives in a Berlin shared apartment and is a philosophy lecturer. She has a teenage daughter who lives with her ex and is having an affair with one of her students. Professionally, she is supported by her doctoral mother Margot. For her birthday, Clara visits her mother in the Mecklenburg province. In her old home, she has to deal with the expectations and rejections of her family and with old acquaintances. There she also realizes how far she has drifted away from her roots on her way to a self-determined life.

The film is directed by Annika Pinske. Trailer and info at

<https://www.kinodrom.de/detail/98141/Alle%20reden%20%C3%BCbers%20Wetter>

About the special film campaign

The film series "KINO Bocholt - the special film" has been taking place since 1977. On the initiative of the Department of Culture and Education of the City of Bocholt, selected films are usually presented every 2nd and 4th Tuesday of the month in cooperation with the Kinodrom Bocholt.

The aim is to present exceptional films - which would otherwise not be shown in the cinemas of Bocholt - to an interested audience of any age.

Cinema tickets can be purchased for 6 euros at the box office of the Kinodrom Bocholt or online via the website www.kinodrom.de.

