Stolen work of art: City files charges

Sculpture "Warp & Shot" stolen from vocational college // Police ask for tips

In the course of last week, the sculpture "Warp & Shot" by Dingden-born artist Ludwig Dinnendahl was forcibly torn from its concrete base and stolen. The city of Bocholt has filed a complaint with the police.

The work of art, also known as the "Weaver's Knot", stood near the entrance to the Bocholt-West Vocational College on Schwanenstraße and was erected there in 1984 in the course of the opening of an extension to the then vocational and home economics schools.

The city of Bocholt has filed a complaint with the police. Information can be obtained from the Bocholt police at 02871/2990.
