

15. May 2026

Education and culture

Summer painting school in Bocholt: Places still available for young talents

Places for 6 to 7-year-olds in the summer painting school are still available // Course from 27 to 31 July // Online registration still possible

There are still a few places left on the course for six to seven-year-olds at this year's Bocholt Summer Painting School. From 27 to 31 July 2026, young up-and-coming artists can get creative at the Kunsthaus.

The summer painting school, which is run in collaboration with course instructor Andrea de Ruiter and the Euregio Kunstkreis e.V., offers children a playful introduction to the world of colour. The first week of the holiday (course 1) is all about abstract painting and creating with a wide variety of materials for six and seven-year-olds. They will work daily from 10:00 to 13:00 on the premises of the Kunsthaus (Osterstr. 69).

In addition to individual works of art, the children also create one joint work per course. A special highlight: all the works created will then be exhibited publicly in the Kunsthaus. The city of Bocholt would like to point out that the children should bring a piece of underwear (e.g. an old blouse or shirt) to the first meeting on 27 July, as it will be creative and colourful.

Interested parents can register their children directly via the city's website. The registration portal is currently activated at www.bocholt.de/sommerschule.

© Stadt Bocholt

Secure places for 6 to 7-year-olds at the summer painting school now