

18. September 2025

Elections

Run-off election for mayor on 28 September: electoral office now open

Early voting possible at the electoral office // Polling stations open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on election Sunday

The run-off election for mayor will take place in Bocholt on Sunday, 28 September 2025. All citizens who were already eligible to vote in the first ballot are entitled to vote. The two candidates with the most votes from the main election on 14 September will stand for election.

Voting is not only possible on election Sunday in the polling stations, but also from now on in the electoral office of the city of Bocholt. This is located in the inner courtyard of the Mariengymnasium at Schleusenwall 1 and is open Monday to Thursday from 8 am to 5 pm and Friday from 8 am to 12.30 pm. On the Friday before the election, 26 September, extended opening hours apply until 3 pm.

Anyone wishing to cast their vote on election Sunday can do so between 8 am and 6 pm at the relevant polling station. The polling station is noted on the polling card. If this is no longer available, it is sufficient to present a valid photo ID on election Sunday to cast your vote.

Postal voting is also possible for the run-off election. Voters who have already applied for postal voting documents for the main election and also requested the documents for the run-off election will automatically receive them by post. Completed postal ballot papers must be received by the electoral office by 4 pm on election Sunday at the latest. It is also possible to drop them in the letterbox of the city administration at Kaiser-Wilhelm-Straße 52-58 until 4.00 pm on election Sunday.

The results of the run-off election will be published on the municipal website at www.bocholt.de/wahlen after the count on election evening. The most important information about the election can also be found here.

© Stadt Bocholt

Voting at the electoral office of the city of Bocholt is now possible again.