Evening on Iran: Women affected describe situation

Emitis Pohl as a guest // Event on Tuesday at the Kinodrom as part of the "special film".

Tickets are still available for the special film evening at the Bocholt Kinodrom next Tuesday, January 10. On this evening, concerned Iranian women will talk about the situation in Iran, also the film "Persepolis" will be shown.

"On this evening, visitors will be able to talk to courageous women who are standing up for women's rights in their home country," says Bocholt's Equal Opportunities Officer Astrid Schupp.

Also the well-known German-Iranian Emitis Pohl will be on this evening in Bocholt to guest and with the visitors and visitors to speak. Admission on 10 January is from 19.15 clock. From 7.30 pm there will be a welcome and a short introduction to the topic. The film "Persepolis" will be shown from 8 p.m., followed by an open exchange of experiences with Iranian women.

The event is organized by the Equal Opportunities Officer of the City of Bocholt together with the Department of Culture and Education and the City Library. Tickets are available online at the Kinodrom website: www.kinodrom.de/detail/15993/Persepolis ↗.
