How to get a fresh start in your career

Online seminar: Career reorientation in midlife // Event in the "Frau+Beruf" series

From her experiences, career consultant Barbara Rottwinkel-Kröber has developed the so-called "job-to-go" formula, a concept according to which every participant can reposition herself professionally in four steps and with a system - from "A" for "getting started" to "Z" for "Which company do I fit in with?" - The seminar will take place on Thursday, October 27, starting at 7 pm.

Bocholt's Equal Opportunities Officer Astrid Schupp cordially invites all interested women to the online seminar "Career reorientation in midlife", the event will take place as part of the series "Frau+Beruf" on Thursday, October 27 from 7 pm.

Speaker of the on-line seminar is the publishing house purchase woman and certified Karriereberaterin Barbara Rottwinkel Kröber. She wants to convey in the seminar, on which it depends with a vocational new start with 40+. Participants will receive practical and immediately applicable checklists, tips and suggestions that they can use to get started right away.

Registration is possible directly with the Equal Opportunities Office of the City of Bocholt at gleichstellung\(at\)bocholt\(dot\)debocholt(dot)de).
