Women's Finance Fair: Tickets also available at the box office

Woman, Work & Money" fair on 17 June // Extensive programme

On Saturday, 17 June, the women's financial fair "Woman, Work & Money" will take place in the spinning mill of the LWL textile factory on Industriestrasse. There, women can inform themselves about topics related to financial security and investment. Tickets for the event will also be available at the box office.

Be financially independent, build up assets, invest in shares, negotiate your salary with confidence, be secure and be successful - the women's fair "Woman, Work & Money" on Saturday, 17 June, will provide a good overview of these topics.

The fair is organised by the kfd-Diözesanverband Münster e.V. in cooperation with the city of Bocholt. Exciting lectures and workshops will be offered, including the lecture "This is how financial independence works!" by Anne E. Connelly, "A man is not an old-age provision" with Helma Sick and a panel discussion on "How can politics ensure fair wages?".

The complete programme and a registration link are available at www.bocholt.de/frauen-finanzen-messe.
