

06. April 2023

Europe/EDI

Real estate acquisition in the German-Dutch border region

German-Dutch regulars' table on Thursday, 13 April, at 7:30 p.m. in Dinxperlo // Europe Direct Bocholt and VHS invite you to attend

The next German-Dutch Stammtisch will take place on Thursday, 13 April. This time the topic will be property acquisition in the German-Dutch border region. The meeting will start at 7:30 pm in the Kulturhus of the Dutch border community Dinxperlo (Maurits Prinsstraat 6). Admission is free. Dutch language skills are not required. The regulars' table is organised by the Europe Direct Office in Bocholt and the Adult Education Centre.

Registrations are possible at www.vhs-bocholt.de or at the continuing education centre at Stenerner Weg on tel. 02871 953-697.

"Everyone is welcome for a drink and a chat," says the head of Europe Direct Bocholt, Sonja Wießmeier. This time a real estate expert from Kalkar will give tips on buying and financing real estate in the border area. The speaker looks back on 25 years of experience in this segment. He will be available afterwards to answer questions.

About the German-Dutch Stammtisch

The German-Dutch Regulars' Table takes place regularly. A wide variety of topics related to the border region are discussed. It is possible to attend the regulars' table as a guest or, if you attend regularly, to be entered in an address list of the Adult Education Centre. In this way, the members are informed in advance about the dates with an invitation by post.

*German-Dutch flags.
© shutterstock (Aritra Deb)*