Talking Europe Series #8: Join me for a discussion on EUropa "Money, Money, Money".

Online event on Tuesday, 21 March from 7 to 8 p.m. // EU budget and EU programmes // Registration open now

"Money, Money, Money - How does the EU budget work and what do EU programmes bring to people on the ground?" Tuesday, 21 March | 19:00 - 20:00 | Digital in the FORUM X App | Code: EU-2103 Registration: <https://www.diskutiermitmir.org/talking-europe>

With a budget framework of over €1.8 trillion until 2027, the EU has more funding available than ever before to give impetus to economic and social development in Europe. Germany's contribution to the EU budget rose to a record level in 2021 - at around €25.1 billion, the Federal Republic was by far the largest net contributor to the EU. Reason enough to take a closer look at how the EU budget works and the Multiannual Financial Framework 2021-2027. Together with our experts, we would like to take a look at which programmes take up the most financial resources and where the EU funds will be primarily invested in the coming years. Does the common financial policy lead to more cohesion in the Union? And what concrete added value does the EU budget offer Germany and the individual EU countries? Join us for a discussion on the EU budget.
