Lecture: Being able to speak and read body language without mistakes

Registrations are now possible at the VHS Bocholt-Rhede-Isselburg

On Thursday, September 15, from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m., there will be a lecture at the Media Center (Alter Bahnhof) with Dr. Hagemann from Münster.

Every fourth person in Germany has international roots, has a migration history. And Germany is a global player. Managers, tourists, engineers travel around the globe. Germans have become global citizens.

In this lecture, you will learn the basic rules of global body language, how to read and interpret them, how to apply them and how to avoid pitfalls.

Dr. Hermann Hagemann from Münster is an expert in body language. The political scientist and coach with additional training in psychotherapy trains executives in companies, administration and politics and says: "Who can read the body language of other people is always at an advantage and he can use his body language consciously."

Registrations immediately gladly under www.vhs-bocholt.de or in our office at the Stenerner way 14a in 46397 Bocholt or at the box office.
