Puppet show "3 little pigs

Content

The three little pigs find a bunch of big boxes while roaming the neighborhood. Enthusiastically, they start building all kinds of things out of the crates. Suddenly a wolf appears and puts the pigs on alert. The peace is disturbed and something must be done. With the help of the boxes, they try to chase the wolf away, but it is not so easy to get rid of it. The pigs consult, experiment and try themselves out, the ideas bubble only so out of the three. One thing, however, does not occur to the three... Is the wolf actually evil?

A story is shown in "animal language" with large figures, groovy music and impressive pictures. It is about rejection, prejudice, fear, but also about rapprochement, fun and joie de vivre.
