FW Bocholt: Burning garden shed

Bocholt (ots) -

At around 9:40 pm, the fire brigade and the rescue service of the city of Bocholt were called out to a burning garden shed in Barlo.

A garden shed measuring approximately 10 m by 4 m was on fire at Plückelsheide. This was extinguished by a fire brigade troop, protected by breathing apparatus. Subsequently, an adjacent garage roof was checked with the help of the turntable ladder. The extinguishing measures prevented major damage to the garage.

One person was attended to by the rescue service. However, transport to hospital was not necessary. No one was injured.

The fire brigade and rescue service were on the scene with a total of eleven emergency personnel and five vehicles.
