FW Bocholt: Flat fire

Bocholt (ots) -

Today, Monday, at 11:00 a.m., the fire and rescue services of the city of Bocholt were alerted to a reported flat fire in Kurfürstenstraße.

Neighbours had been alerted to the smoky flat by beeping home smoke detectors. The occupants of the flat were not at home.

The fire brigade entered the flat. The burning objects were brought outside. Afterwards, the flat was cleared of smoke with the help of an electric fan. No one was injured.

The fire brigade and rescue service were on the scene with a total of four vehicles and twelve emergency personnel.
