

25. November 2025

Music school

Children's concert: Grüß Gott, ich bin Hieronymus - a musical picture book story

Saturday, 29 November // at LernWerk // Admission free

On Saturday, 29 November 2025, the Bocholt-Isselburg Music School will be holding a picture book concert entitled "Grüß Gott, ich bin Hieronymus". The concert starts at 11:00 am at the Bocholt Music School in the LernWerk at Industriestraße 1. Admission is free.

At the centre is the story of the little nutcracker Hieronymus, who sets off in search of a new home and encounters many animals in the forest. The tale is presented as a lively interactive story and offers a pre-Christmas experience for children, families and anyone else who is interested.

The concert will be accompanied by music from the music school's flute, recorder, piano, basic training and guitar students.

The music school cordially invites all listeners, young and old, to take part in this special concert morning and start the Advent season together.

Tickets can be booked online at eveno.com/bilderbuchkonzert2025.

The Bocholt Learning Centre