"Piano plus": concert for piano solo and chamber music

Tuesday, October 25, 6:30 p.m. at TextilWerk Bocholt // admission free

On Tuesday, October 25, the Bocholt-Isselburg Music School will host a "Piano plus" concert featuring students from the keyboard instruments department at the TextilWerk Bocholt (Industriestrasse 5). Start time is 6:30 pm. Admission is free.

There will be 25 students between the ages of 12-19 who have come together in recent weeks for this chamber music project.

Thematically, Piazzolla's compositions will be contrasted on the program with piano works by Felix Mendelssohn and Frederic Chopin. Works by Astor Piazzolla will be intoned in various chamber music settings. The piano will be accompanied by various instruments such as clarinet, bassoon, cello, violin, bassoon, saxophone or oboe. In addition to romantic pieces for solo piano by Mendelssohn-Bartholdy and Chopin, works by Argentine composer Astor Piazzolla such as Jeanne Y Paul, Tristeza, Years of Solitude or Oblivion will be heard.
