Singing podium: young people and adults present well-known songs

Event of the Music School Bocholt-Isselburg on Sunday, 11 June at the "Vogelhaus" // Free admission

On Sunday, 17 June, a podium for singing will take place at 5 pm in the garden of the "Vogelhaus" restaurant (Zur Eisenhütte 4 in Bocholt). Young people and adults will interpret well-known songs there. Admission is at 4:30 pm. Admission is free.

As a prelude to the summer holidays, the singing podium of the music school will once again take place under the direction of singing teacher Christa Warnke. Songs from the singing classes of the Bocholt-Isselburg Music School will be performed on stage.

So once again there are various soloists with impressive voices. "My students have again prepared a great programme," vocal teacher Christa Warnke is pleased to say. "The choir of the Mariengymnasium, a cooperation project with the music school, the Singwerkstatt and also the youth choir Young Voices are also taking part," says Warnke. Songs from the rock and pop genres will be presented.
