Singing Stage at the LernWerk

Choirs and singing classes perform well-known songs // Saturday 4 July 2026 at the LernWerk // Free admission

On 4 July at 6 pm, a summer singing event will take place at the LernWerk. Young people and adults will perform well-known songs there under the theme "When Dreams Come Alive". Doors open at 5.30 pm; admission is free.

The singing class and choirs of the Bocholt-Isselburg Music School, under the direction of Alishia Funken and Stefanie Bergmann, will present a colourful and varied musical programme as part of the Summer Stage series.

In a relaxed atmosphere, the singers will perform songs, arias, duets and pieces ranging from classical to pop, which, in all manner of musical colours, tell stories of people, dreams and hope. These are complemented by atmospheric pop arrangements featuring the "Young Voices" choir and the female singers of the "Singwerkstatt%$.

Pupils from Christina Taczyk and Tetiana Shyrina's piano classes are also taking part in the concert: they will accompany the Young Voices and, together with the vocal soloists, perform several chamber music pieces.
