"Mayor on site": Kerkhoff invites citizens to an open dialogue

This time: Fildeken-Rosenberg district // Tuesday, 16 January, from 17:30 at the Handwerksmuseum

"Mayor on site", this is the motto under which Bocholt's mayor Thomas Kerkhoff invites citizens to an open dialogue in an informal atmosphere. Current topics that concern people in the neighbourhood can be discussed there. The next event will take place on Tuesday, 16 January, at the Handwerksmuseum (Köcherstraße 4). It is aimed in particular at citizens who live in the Fildeken-Rosenberg neighbourhood. You are cordially invited to attend.

Registration is not required. Questions for the mayor or about the format can be submitted in advance by email to buergemeister-vor-ort\(at\)bocholt\(dot\)debocholt(dot)de). Following the open dialogue, there will be an opportunity for a short, confidential one-to-one discussion with Thomas Kerkhoff.
