"Mayor on site": Kerkhoff invites citizens to an open dialogue

This time: Giethorst district / Bocholt-Nordost // Thursday, 23 November, from 3:30 pm in the Christuskirche parish café

"Mayor on site" is the motto under which Bocholt's mayor Thomas Kerkhoff invites citizens to an open dialogue in an informal atmosphere. Current issues that concern people in the neighbourhood can be discussed there. The next event will take place on Thursday, 23 November, in the parish café of the Christuskirche (Schwartzstraße 4). It is aimed in particular at citizens who live in the Giethorst neighbourhood. You are cordially invited.

Registration is not required. Questions for the mayor can be submitted in advance by email to buergermeister-vor-ort\(at\)bocholt\(dot\)debocholt(dot)de). Following the open dialogue, there will be an opportunity for a brief, confidential one-to-one discussion with Thomas Kerkhoff.

Giethorst district

The "Giethorst" / Bocholt-Nordost area extends from Münsterstraße to Hohe Giethorst and from Barloer to Rheder Straße up to the city forest. The Euregio-Gymnasium and the Clemens-Dülmer and Hohe Giethorst schools are located in the area. The Borussia Bocholt sports club and the new Edith Stein Hospice are also part of "Giethorst".

Next date

The next "Bürgermeister vor Ort" event will take place on 18 January 2024 in the Dietrich Bonhoeffer-Haus (Dinxperloer Straße) and is aimed at citizens who live in the north-western part of Bocholt ("Löverick").
