Lucky winners at the "Sport & Culture" action day

Organisers present prizes

Diana Matiash is beaming all over: The 6-year-old had participated in the raffle of this year's action day "Sport & Culture" on 9 September in Langenbergpark - and promptly won the main prize, a brand new bicycle. Nine other prizes were now presented to the lucky winners by the organisers.

A total of 531 completed "activity passes" were handed in on the "Sport & Culture" action day, which met with a high visitor response. Every visitor who took part in sports or creative activities at ten stations that afternoon received an activity pass. This was a prerequisite for taking part in the raffle.

Diana Matiash was delighted to win a bicycle from the "Hochrath" company in Bocholt. Second prizes in the form of shopping vouchers worth 30 euros for the Shopping Arkaden Bocholt went to Leah Kahlert, Björn Ernst and Leonie Oehlen. "Culture backpacks" went to Lotta Kresken, Mara Ernst and Jannik Borkus. Max van Eß, Josephine Egbert and Shahem Wardeh received book prizes.

The "Sport & Culture" action day in Langenbergpark Bocholt has been held for several years and draws attention to local sporting and cultural activities. Visitors can get information at over 40 stations and stands and try out many of the activities themselves. The action day offers clubs and groups a platform to present themselves to a broad public.
