

22. May 2023

Traffic

Traffic: Construction work on Münsterstraße will last until the beginning of June

Extensive work on supply lines necessary

The construction work currently underway on Münsterstrasse, at the level of the old railway line, is expected to continue until 2 June 2023, as the work on the utility lines is proving to be extensive.

Traffic will be regulated at this single-lane bottleneck by a construction site traffic light. The city asks all road users to pay special attention.

© Stadt Bocholt

Attention construction site