Overview: Bocholt's new development areas in planning

Bocholt is a city with a high quality of life and a wide range of housing standards. Find out more about your path to owning your own home in Bocholt with interesting information for property developers.

The city of Bocholt is currently developing new housing estates in the following neighbourhoods:

HOLTWICK/LOWICK

ESCHKANTE

A municipal offer for the planned Holtwick/Lowick development area is not expected until 2026 at the earliest.

Marketing for the planned Eschkante development area can only take place once the development of the construction area has been secured. The northern ring road between Hemdener Weg and Adenauerallee is essential for external development. A date for the development has not yet been set.

Plots in these new development areas are currently in the process of being approved by the building authorities and can only be offered as soon as the procedures have been finalised and the development of the plots has been secured.

It is therefore not yet possible to quote prices or make any statements on confirmed schedules.

The municipal list of interested parties

The path to your own home

Are you interested in an urban building plot in Bocholt? Great! Then add your name to the city's list of interested parties.

- The municipal list of interested parties will inform you about future offers
- Registration is non-binding and free of charge

Important to know: Entry in the municipal list of interested parties is not an application for a specific property offer, but an entry in a free and non-binding information system. A ranking is not generated in the list of interested parties. Please also note the data protection information.

Frequently asked questions

How do I register in the list of interested parties? (Step by step instructions)

Here you will find a step-by-step guide to registering in the list of interested parties. \(Click here\).

How can I change my data such as name, address, etc. in the list of interested parties? (Step by step instructions)

Here you will find step-by-step instructions if you want to make changes to your data. \(Click here\).

Why do I need a user account to be added to the list of interested parties?

The city of Bocholt has completely digitalised its list of interested parties. The advantage: interested parties can edit their entry and the data entered in their user account themselves - and delete it if necessary. An account on bocholt.de is required for this function. You can register on bocholt.de here. ↗

In future, other online services will also be connected and managed via the user account. You can find an overview of the current range of digital services here.

I have put my name on the list. Is this also an application for a residential property?

No, entry in the list of interested parties is not an application for a specific property offer. It is merely an entry in a free and non-binding information system. A ranking is not generated here.

As soon as new residential building plots are advertised, you will be informed by e-mail and can then submit a specific application for the plots.
